BATTLE NEAR LIAOYANG.

SHANHAIKWAN, May 10-9 P. M .- It is reported that the First Japanese army corps, having followed the Russians retreating from the Yalu River, overtook them twenty miles south of Liaoyang yesterday, and a severe engagement ensued. The Japanese dragged their guns up hills believed to be insurmountable.

The Russians thereupon continued to retreat north. A division of the First Corps is approaching Newchwang, which is now garrisoned by a handful of Russians. Japanese scouts have been seen six miles from Newchwang.

Nineteen women were the last civilians to leave Newchwang for Shan-

Col. Muenthe, military adviser of Vicesoy Yan Shi Kai, commander-inchief of the Chinese forces, arrived here this afternoon. It is believed he came to Newchwang to confer with the Russians regarding the proposal to turn Newchwang over to the Chinese.

The Russians are known to be communicating with the Chinese brigands and to be stirring up a state of terror aomng the natives.

LONDON, May 10 .- Yingkow is to be the next point of attack by the Japanese. The advantage gained by their occupation of Dalny is to be followed as rapidly as possible by a movement against Yingkow and also against Port Arthur.

It is explained in St. Petersburg that he is trying to save the men at his command until he has his big army ready for action. The bandits, having become emboldened, have attacked and cut the railway along which the Russian force from Newchwang is retreating
